

Proclamation

Whereas, domestic violence is a serious crime that affects people of all races, ages, gender, and income levels; and,

Whereas, domestic violence is widespread and affects over 4 million Americans each year; and,

Whereas, one in three Americans have witnessed an incident of domestic violence; and,

Whereas, children that grow up in violent homes are believed to be abused and neglected at a rate higher than the national average; and,

Whereas, domestic violence costs the nation billions of dollars annually in medical expenses, police and court costs, shelters, foster care, sick leave, absenteeism, and non-productivity; and

Whereas, only a coordinated community effort will put a stop to this heinous crime; and

Whereas, Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an excellent opportunity for citizens to learn more about preventing domestic violence and to show support for the numerous organizations and individuals who provide critical advocacy, services and assistance to victims.

Now, Therefore, I, Daniel Dwyer, Mayor of the City of Plymouth, do hereby proclaim the month of October as

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

In the City of Plymouth, and urge our citizens to work together to eliminate domestic violence from our community.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Plymouth to be affixed hereto this Seventh Day of September of the Year of Our Lord Two-Thousand Ten, and of the Independence Two Hundred Thirty-Four.

Daniel Dwyer, Mayor
City of Plymouth, Michigan
